Support - Optoma UK The HD33 comes with a number of preset picture modes but the most useful, from an accuracy perspective, are Cinema and Reference. According to the user manual the Cinema preset is "optimised for home theatre" and the Reference preset is "intended to reproduce, as close as possible, the image the way the movie director intended. There are also ISF Day and ISF Night modes that can be accessed by an ISF certified calibrator and used to lock calibrated settings. Since Centsless Books tracks free ebooks available on Amazon, there may be times when there is nothing listed. If that happens, try again in a few days.
